PASC serves as YOUR Voice in Harrisburg . . .

About PASC:

The Pennsylvania Association of Senior Centers (PASC) is the only professional organization in Pennsylvania dedicated to advocating for Senior Centers and the consumers we serve.

PASC works to:

- Provide professional training for the enhancement of Senior Center activities.
- PASC was instrumental in the development of the Senior Center Grant Program and continues to advocate for the senior center line item in the Pennsylvania General Budget.
- PASC representatives meet regularly with staff from the Department of Aging, other state organizations, collaborative, and legislators.
- PASC promotes communication and advocacy efforts with the policymakers in the Commonwealth.
- PASC collaborates with other agencies and member organizations on issues which effect home and community services for older adults.
- PASC provides ideas and information for improving the operation of Senior Centers in Pennsylvania.

Your Membership in PASC Includes:

- ✓ Attendance at the annual and regional conferences at a discounted rate.
- ✓ Membership newsletter and e-mail updates providing advance notice regarding upcoming PASC events and public policy alerts.
- ✓ A PASC created website with member-exclusive content sharing ideas, information, and center opportunities.
- ✓ Professional training and development opportunities throughout the state including a Professional Certificate Program offered through Penn State University.
- ✓ Networking opportunities on a regional and statewide level to provide creative, successful programming and fundraising ideas.
